This week's meeting - December 19th

Dr. Judith Broder - The Soldiers Project

Dr. Broder, a psychiatrist, created The Soldiers Project to support free, confidential, unlimited therapy to veterans returning from Iraq and Afghanistan – and their families.

As Dr. Judith Broder watched a play documenting the mental anguish some veterans experience after coming home from war, something clicked. As a psychiatrist, she knew that without help some soldiers would never get past what they had seen and done. She also understood that a veteran's distress can painfully affect loved ones. Taking action, Dr. Broder created an organization that supports free, confidential, unlimited therapy to service members and their families. –
